Organizational Overview

The mission of HomeFront is to end homelessness in Central New Jersey by harnessing the caring resources and expertise of the community. We lessen the immediate pain of homelessness and help families become self-sufficient. We give people skills and opportunities to ensure adequate incomes and to increase the availability of adequate affordable housing. We help families experiencing homelessness advocate for themselves individually and collectively.

Summary/Objective

HomeFront is seeking a Temporary Assistant Teacher in our Atkinson Child Development Center, located at the HomeFront Family Campus, to support young children and families experiencing homelessness and the effects of living in poverty. The Atkinson Child Development Center is an important part of HomeFront's Family Campus, our innovative model designed to be a haven of healing and hope. The Family Campus offers a wide array of services for families experiencing homelessness and the effects of poverty including shelter for families experiencing homelessness, on-site childcare, career support, vocational opportunities and job training, educational support for adults and children, physical and mental health and wellness partners, therapeutic art programming, specialized support for children, and much more. The Family Campus is designed to offer these solutions to the barriers facing HomeFront families, lessen the immediate pain of homelessness, and help break the cycle of poverty.

Within the Family Campus model, the Atkinson Child Development Center exists to provide quality, affordable childcare for children ages 0-5 residing at the Campus or participating in other HomeFront programs. The Assistant Teacher in Atkinson provides developmentally appropriate, trauma informed care for our youngest children. The Assistant Teacher embodies HomeFront's mission and ensures that HomeFront's core values are embedded in the children's experience in Atkinson.
